Madam Clerk and Mary-Cait—Good afternoon to you.

I represent the Appellant J & W in this matter. Due to an unexpectedly busy March, I have not been able to produce the Record on Appeal yet and am hereby requesting an extension of 30 days. Can you act upon this written request since it is my first request for an extension for filing the Record on Appeal, or do I need to file a formal Motion For Extension?

Ellis Lesemann, on behalf of the Respondents, has consented to this request and is copied on this email.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Tom Taylor
