RE: Record on Appeal
Buddy Newsome #220855 vs. SCDC, Appellate Case No. 2020-001512

Dear Clerk:

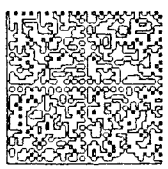

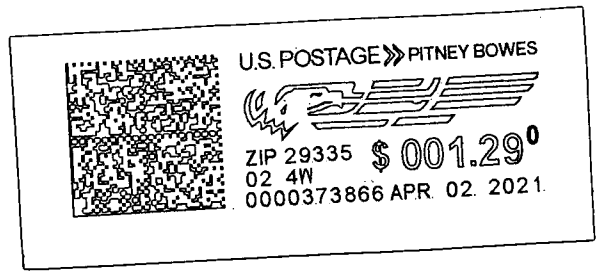

On March 23, 2021 I received the notice from your Office as regards to filing the record on appeal. Thus, the time line from that date would be applied according to the rule. However, the DOC has all records of Grievances and will not make any copies of such unless ordered. Because of this I have to submit my only copy of those documents with the record. On March 30, today I received the second letter from your Office about the record on appeal. Out of an abundance of caution I am asking for an extension of time to comply with the rule as I will have to compile a record from my own case file without any assistance from SCDC and copies within their possession. The record should consist of nothing more than the Order, and the grievances filed in the case, which is already in your possession.

In any event out of caution I am requesting for an extension of at least two weeks period to comply.

Respectfully

s/ Buddy Newsome
