Dear Jenny ABBOTT Kitchings clerk

This is my response to you March 26, 2021 letter you sent me in reference to my case pending before the SC Court of Appeals. in which you stated you found ~~the~~ a deficiency or deficiencies you noted that I didn't comply with. in which I must correct within ten (10) days of the date of your letter. your letter is dated March 26, 2021, I didn't receive it until April 8, 2021...

You said in your letter The accompanying proof of service was not in compliance with section 208 proof of service.

and In addition, the court has received my record on appeal dated March 19, 2021. My record on appeal will be due to serve and filed within 30 days after service of the last brief per Rule 210 of SCAC. My record you returned to me.

Ms. Kitchings does this mean you sent or returned my record on appeal to me, without filing it?

and that I will need to refile it at the appropriate time? or you're just providing me a copy of my record or appeal and I won't need to refile it at the appropriate time. I don't know, although I've been incarcerated 20 years. I'm not a professional defense lawyer - I try to do my best based upon what I've learned over the years of my incarceration. I'm trying, anyway. I am appreciative that you allow me to correct my errors, based upon those you find to exist, instead of dismissing my appeal. Thank you.

Enclosed you will find my compliance with SCA 208 as you requested.

P.S. I am assuming since you kept the initial Brief, ~~and~~ all I need to do is comply with SCA 208 proof of service? If this is so you will find enclosed the correct proof of service as requested.
