Re: Eliza I. Banks-Johnson vs. Mark S. O'Halla, et. al.
Appellate Dkt#: 2021-000228

MOTION-LETTER FOR WIVER OF FILING FEES

South Carolina Appellate Court:

I, ELIZA I. BANKS-JOHNSON, Appellant a pro se litigant, earnestly request that this Court waive all filing fees in the above-matter according SCCAR for the foregoing reasons:

1. The Appellant is unemployed and only receives her retirement and Social Security Income, therefore rendering Appellant's under indigent status.
2. On August 20th, 2016, Appellant was involved in a very serious automobile accident, and was hospitalized for months, and thereafter was responsible for reimbursements towards her medical expensive, then and heretofore. Re to CMS.
3. This Appeal is not frivolous nor is it for dilatory reasons or prejudice purposes.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant prays that this Honorable Court will grant Appellant leave to proceed under in forma pauperis status, and any thing else that this Court may deem just and reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,

Eliza I. Banks-Johnson
