

Dear Mrs. Kitchings

I would like to request an indigent Appellate lawyer. I am having problems contacting my lawyer Donteik Macdonald and he is not currently helping me as I have asked. I asked him upon receiving the first letter of dismissal to write a motion for rehearing and he said it was too late, that was when I wrote my own motion. Since I have asked him to file an extension, I don't think he has. Better yet I'm not sure if I am at that stage yet but I really don't have any legal guidance at this point no one has helped me to know anything about where or what is going on with my appeal. Apparently, my case worker Ms. Jacqueline Dreck whom I have talked to maybe twice and I have left her messages let me know how to request a lawyer everything else legally I have done on my own reading and learning from the law library no legal advise or help. I don't want to lose my appeal or waive my appeal. So I want an Appellate lawyer to help me going forward. From what I understand in the South Carolina Jurisprudence under post conviction Relief it is Ineffective Assistance of Counsel for a denial to not be amended by counsel in post trial procedure. He Macdonald did not send a motion for rehearing or try to keep my appeal going. I want to file for a Certificate of reasonable doubt, for granting bail. This is what I need my lawyer to do right now as well as communicate with me through this process. So can I please get Mr. Dudek as my lawyer. I have some more information about my case that I would like to have reviewed. Unless it is a procedural bar, I wasn't sure about something I thought of later, on after I mailed my letter an issue but never mind now.
