Re: The Estate of Delilah Parrot v. Sandpiper Independent and Assisted Living – Delaware, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2020-001643
CA No.: 2016-CP-10-5379

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of correspondence from the appellant's counsel of record advising you that the appellate had received the transcripts from this trial on May 12, 2021 after intervention with court administration. Please note that the respondent filed a Transcript Request Form requesting a copy of the transcript on December 30, 2020 (See attached). As of today's date, respondent has not received the transcript. Respondent has reached out to court administration; however, in their responsive email indicating that the original court reporter is now retired and that they would have the court reporter contact me "with an estimated cost and delivery date" (See attached).

It is impossible for the respondent to appropriately respond to the appellant's brief without a copy of the transcript. I will provide to you information for court administration once that is received. I wanted to make the court aware of our predicament.

If there is additional information that you require of us, please advise immediately. I am,

Very truly yours,

Paul L. Reeves

Case No.: 2016CP105379
Claim No.: AA078152

Dear Ms. Carney:

It is my understanding that you were the court report in connection with this matter which was heard in front of The Honorable Bentley Price during the week of September 10, 2020. I have also been made aware that Mr. Brown has requested a transcript from you.

I am writing to request a copy of that transcript from you once it has been completed. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions or require additional information. I am,

Very truly yours,

Transcript Request Form

Pursuant to Rule 207 and 607 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the transcribed paper copy is the official record of court proceedings. You may request a transcript by completing this form and emailing it to the Court Reporter and to South Carolina Court Administration at transcripts@sccourts.org. Click here for instructions on how to find the court reporter's email and mailing addresses. Once the court reporter receives your request, it will be processed pursuant to Rule 207 and 607 of the SCACR. Rule 607(h) governs the fees for transcripts, which are not provided for free or at reduced rates to any party. Please send by mail a money order or certified bank check to the court reporter in order to obtain the transcript. Some court reporters may accept personal checks. Please check with the court reporter to see if this option is available. Once your request is received, you will receive a copy of this form with the bottom portion completed. Please promptly submit your payment in order for the transcript to be provided. If you need to cancel the transcript request for any reason, you are responsible for paying for the pages of the transcript that have already been completed at the time of the cancellation.

Good morning. We received today a letter from opposing counsel indicating that they received the transcript in connection with the Parrott vs. Sandpiper matter yesterday. We have not received a copy of the transcript. I have attached a copy of our letter requesting same along with the Transcript Request form. Please let me know if there is something additional you need prior to releasing it to us.

Thank you.
