LaToyla:

Upon examining the Index to the Record on Appeal in this case, it appears that there is a small typo. Under the Appellant's Rule 59 Motion entry, there is an entry marked "Ex. Appellant's Proposed MSJ Order." This should have read "Ex. Respondent's Proposed MSJ Order." I wish to correct this typo, and opposing counsel has consented. Should I just make the correction and file the Record again or is more required? Should the new Record be designated an Amended Record or just left with the title as it is right now?

Sincerely,
John R. Cantrell, Jr.
