Dear James I. Ward, IV, Esq:

I have called the South Carolina Bar Association and the Charleston Bar Association asking for names of attorneys to assist me with this case. I asked why was this case in probate court a problem when I filed Jeff Nesbitt's Will? The Master- In- Equity judge has never answered any information or questions I have sent to him. Why is he interested now in responding to something related to Ms. Estella N. Slovney. It has been 27 years I have been waiting for an answer from a judge. When I filed my father's will Mr. Mikell R. Scarborough toll the clerk Jeff Nesbitt had no property and he would take care of this matter. I have spoken to several attorneys about the judges action in this case. All of the Attorneys I have spoken to responded" I am booked; I will get back to you or can't help because the judge gives the orders. I asked for suggestions from the Attorneys they had no suggestions to give me. I cannot get an attorney in CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA. The late Charles Goldberg said" the judge has a lot of power . May be because he control the Bar Association, the Attorneys , the LAW Department and all of the other jobs he is assigned. My question is why is the MASTER-IN-EQUITY involved in The Probate Court. The Probate Clerk said " they have to follow the judge orders. Mr. Goldberg you were right. I got a letter asking me to get a second amended inventory and Appraisement to reflect that there is no real property in this Estate for Jeff Nesbitt. You must do this and send it to the court so the case can be closed other wise the court will continue to bother you. I see this judge doesn't send information following his hearing and doesn't make it clear to the workers to send information after and hearing. Case No. : 2015-CP-10-4458 I am still waiting for the results from the hearing held on April 21, 2021 Estella N. Slovney vs Alexander Nesbitt et, al HOSTED BY MASTER IN EQUITY

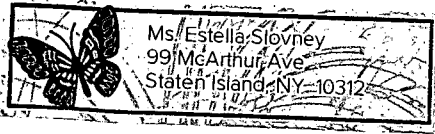

What is the purpose of getting a second amended Inventory and Appraisement to reflect that there is no real property in this estate. If Jeff Nesbitt has no real property in the Estate how can he give his heirs entitlement to his heirs in the Alexander Nesbitt Estate,

CC

Judge MIKELL R. Scarborough
