Ref: Appellate Case No. 2012-213208 regarding said Appeals Court's LETTER Dated March 27, 2013
and the Lower Court Case no; 2012-CP-18-539 - Transcript - Dated August 29, 2012

Dear Ms. Walker;

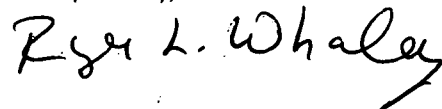

I've been writing you by certified mail, as well as email, as well as leaving numerous phone messages at your place of business, attempting to order my court transcript dated 'August 29, 2012' heard in the above said lower court case number, but, yet you have not responded to absolutely any of my sent written communications, except for one of my certified mail did return with your personal signature accepting that said mail, but again, I have not received any price rate, nor any type acknowledgement, letting me know if you would be able to provide me with a copy of that said typed transcript.

Again, at this time period, the said Appeals Court continues to write me, insisting that I need that said transcript, or that you need to request for an Extension of time, to provide that said transcript to me.

I most apologize in my prior mail, I referred to you as a male, but I learn today, that you are a female with the same name 'Harry A. Walker'. Please get back with me immediately, you or your management/supervision would need to get back in touch with me, so to give me some type of status report regarding my continued requests for the said transcript since in the year 2012, as the said appeals court has threaten to dismiss my case, because of your slow/or non-responses to my letters, makes the said Appeal Court appears to believe that I am not attempting to contact you, pursuant with the required Rule 207 of that said court.

Looking to hear from you very soon.

Respectfully,

Mr. Roger L. Whaley, Pro Se
