

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Debra Riley, Appellant,

v.

Albemarle Oil Company, Inc., Employer, and EMC
Insurance Companies, Carrier, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2012-213079

ORDER

---

This appeal was dismissed for failure to submit the filing fee and for failure to provide proof of service as required by Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Appellant has now filed a motion to reinstate this appeal. She also submitted the filing fee and submitted a proof of service, indicating she timely served Respondent with the notice of appeal. Rule 203 (d)(2)(B), however, also requires proof of service showing that the agency has been served with the notice of appeal. Accordingly, within ten days, Appellant shall serve and file an amended proof of service, showing the Workers' Compensation Commission was timely served. Upon receipt of the amended proof of service, or within ten days, this Court will consider the motion to reinstate.
