RE: Beaufort County v Joyce Ham Appellate Case No. 2021-000227; Beaufort County Court of Common Pleas case No : 2020-CP-07-01627

Date: June 3, 2021

Dear Clerk/ Judge:

Response to May 12, 2021 letter and all, I am aware that your court has provided no evidence of Jurisdiction and therefore has no authority to dismiss/remittitur/ or pass judgment of any kind as it relates to my affairs.

I am of the impression that your trial court is a court of first instance having original jurisdiction or general jurisdiction(in which no evidence of Jurisdiction was provided), where trials take place and the trial court is of a civil or criminal case nature where civil proceedings are taken for the purpose of obtaining compensation for injury and criminal proceedings purpose is to inflict punishment. Given that no injured party is involved and no crime has been committed I have no business in any of your courts.

It is alleged that Government exist to resolve disputes, conflicts and truth but for me and my ancestors your Government is/has and have been the source of disputes, conflicts and abuse for Moors. It is time to repent for your crimes against humanity.

I am bound to this land by heritage, I only had hope that you would address your agents and bring them under your control and leave me to enjoy my inheritance with the acknowledgement that I have chosen not to engage in commerce. Land is not bought or purchase only inherited here and I cannot and will not give away my inheritance.

In your own words "It is against equity for freemen not to have the free disposal of their own property"

Please be respectful,

Joyce Ham
