Re: T. D. Bank v. Roller, Appellate Tracking Number: 2019-000047

Dear Ms. Allen,

I have no conflict with any of the dates proposed by your office for oral argument in the above case. I do ask, however, for protection on September 13th not because of a conflict, but because I am flying back to Charleston 2 days earlier on a start-up airline (Breeze Airlines) with no track record for reliability or on time performance. Moreover, in keeping with my paranoid nature, I cannot help but reflect on my succumbing to panic should I become stuck or delayed in a remote airport with no clear path home because I adhered to my cheap nature on something as important as flying and booked with a new and untested airline. (I also have a superstitious belief that when I express my fears out loud, the resulting embarrassment is a hedge against the feared outcome. It has not worked so far, but dum spiro spero.) With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

BELK, COBB, INFINGER & GOLDSTEIN, P.A.
