v.

Zbigniew Marek Drzazgowski and Alicja Anna Drzazgowski

Of whom Zbigniew Marek Drzazgowski

Appellate Case No. 2019-001420

Regarding the letter dated June 3, 2021 regarding the request of extension of time for consideration and decision of the Appellate Case No. 2019-001420 I would like to inform the South Carolina Court Of Appeals that I have decided to refer my case to the Supreme Court of the United States if I do not receive such a decision.

Despite the obvious facts about summons delivery against SC Code of Laws(SC code of Laws, Civil Remedies and Procedures, Chapter 9, sec. 15-9-210, p. (a) and (b)) I was deprived of the opportunity to defend myself in Court Beaufort County, the Court of Common Pleas, Trial Case No. 2019CP701326.

I would like to present once again my request for an extension of time for consideration and decision of the Appellate Case No. 2019-001420 and final decision.

Title 15 - Civil Remedies and Procedures

CHAPTER 9

Summonses, Orders of Publication and Service of Papers Generally

ARTICLE 1

Summons Generally

SECTION 15-9-15. Affidavit as proof of service by publication.

In addition to the method of proof of service by publication provided by the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, proof of service by publication may be made by affidavit before a notary public of this State that the appropriate notice has been printed or published.

HISTORY: 1988 Act No. 400, Section 1.

SECTION 15-9-17. Service of summons, complaint or other judicial documents on Sunday.

Notwithstanding another provision of law, a process server may serve a summons, complaint, or other judicial documents on Sundays; however, a process server may not serve a person who is going to or from or attending a regularly or specially scheduled church or other religious service on Sunday.

HISTORY: 2000 Act No. 360, Section 1.

ARTICLE 3

Personal or Substitute Service in State

SECTION 15-9-210. Service of process on domestic corporations.

(a) A domestic business or nonprofit corporation's registered agent is the agent of the corporation for service of any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served, and the service is binding upon the corporation.

(b) The business or nonprofit corporation may be served under Rule 4(d)(8) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the office of the registered agent, or the office of the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. Service is effective upon the date of delivery as shown on the return receipt. Entry of default and default judgments shall be subject to the conditions of Rule 4(d)(8).

(c) If the business or nonprofit corporation has no registered agent, or the agent cannot be served with reasonable diligence by means authorized by rule or statute, other than under Section 15-9-710, and such appears by affidavit, the court or judge thereof, the clerk of the court of common pleas or the master may grant an order that the corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the office of the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. The summons shall state the date it was mailed under this subsection, and the date service is effective. Service is perfected five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark or other evidence of the date the summons and complaint was mailed pursuant to this paragraph, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the address of the company's principal office which is listed on the last filed annual report of the business corporation or last filed notice of change of principal office for a nonprofit corporation or, if none has been filed, the address of the principal office specified in the initial annual report of the business corporation filed with the South Carolina Department of Revenue and, in the Articles of Incorporation (or initial annual report, if filed) for a nonprofit corporation. Entry of judgment and judgment by default may be taken as otherwise provided by Rule 55 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of serving a domestic business or nonprofit corporation.
