Your honor,

I am addressing the fact that if I do not understand the court processes, granted to a degree. But it was your Clerk of Court's office that initially made the Deficiency letter dated 05/18/2021 to the Appellants attorney after his initial brief. I merely brought it into a higher regard as I am a legal beneficiary and with that I have certain rights by your Court. I will accept my knowledge is limited but the Appellants attorney need heed the SC Court of Appeals own Deficiency brought to his attention. I just highlighted it through my correspondence.

Sincerely,

Kelvin Wayne Crosby, beneficiary of the estate of Annie Mae Crosby
Disabled USAF and Army Veteran
