- Equity looks to the intent rather than form
- Equity requires Diligence, Clean Hands and Good Faith
- Equity regards the beneficiary as the True owner
- Equity will not aid a volunteer
- Equity will not Perfect an Imperfect Gift
- Equity comes to the aid of the legally disabled
- Superior Equity Shall Prevail, when there are Equal Equities
- The Law Shall Prevail, otherwise Equity Shall Prevail
- He who has done that, may have, God and not man must make the will
- He who is not a man, person or ancestor, the law is the same person with the capacity
- To substitute you in person, law, equity. The law does not substitute to the person, but not the person.
- The law and his ancestor are one and the same person. That is, one in right, the law succeeding to the rights of his ancestor just as the king when dies.
