RE: State of South Carolina v. Tabettha F. Brown
Appellate Case No. 2021-000580

Dear Ms. Brown:

It was nice to speak with you today. Thank you for confirming the above address. As I explained to you on the telephone, I am enclosing a letter from the Court of Appeals. In the letter you will notice that I am to notify you as my explanation for the appeal. I have told you that my explanation was that you requested that I file an appeal. Further, as noted in the enclosed letter, you have twenty (20) days from June 4, 2021 to inform the Court in writing of any arguable basis for the appeal. If you have an arguable basis for any issues preserved for appeal you will place them in writing and send it to the South Carolina Court of Appeals at the address noted in the letter. If, and when, you submit your arguable basis for the issues preserved for appeal, please make sure you reference the Appellate Case No 2021-000580 on all correspondence.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter please call me upon receipt of this letter. It was nice to talk with you this afternoon and I am glad to hear that you have already checked in with probation.

Sincerely,

Debra K. Littlejohn

Re: The State v. Tabettha F. Brown
Appellate Case No. 2021-000580

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

This is to advise that the title in the above matter has been changed to read as follows:

The State, Respondent,

v.

Tabetha Faye Brown, Appellant.

All future records in this matter should be changed to reflect this title. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

RE: State of South Carolina v. Tabettha F. Brown
Appellate Case No.: 2021-000580

Dear Ms. Brown:

I am contacting you again today because I received another letter from the Court of Appeals wherein the Court of Appeals has again asked that I forward to you my explanation for the appeal. As you know from my prior letter as well as our prior conversation, the only reason I filed the appeal was because you asked me to file the appeal.

The Court of Appeals would also like for you to know that you have twenty (20) days from the date of my transmittal letter to let the Court know in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. You will need to send your response to the Court at:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia S.C. 29211

I am enclosing a copy of the letter from the Court of Appeals dated June 22, 2021 for you to use as a reference. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Debra K. Littlejohn

Re: The State v. Tabetha F. Brown
Appellate Case No. 2021-000580

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your explanation for appealing.

This is the second letter from the Court attempting to obtain the following. Please forward your explanation to your client, along with a statement that your client has twenty (20) days from the date of your transmittal letter to inform this Court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. Please provide your client with the Court's address:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

Please send your letter to your client within ten (10) days, with a copy to this Court, or this appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
