RE: Molly M. Morphew, Appellant v. Stephen Dudek, et al., Respondents
Appellate Case No. 2018-002185
SJC File No. 17-052

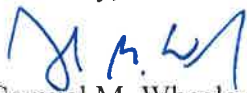

Dear Ms. Morphew:

On May 27, 2021, in compliance with the Court of Appeals' order issued the same day, I mailed you a copy of the First Federal file that was conveyed to your previous counsel on June 10, 2014. As you know, the file was sent to your previous counsel in response to a subpoena. For some reason, First Federal did not redact my clients' sensitive personal and financial information, such as social security numbers and bank account numbers. We have redacted that information in the enclosed file, which is identical to the file I previously sent, except for the redaction of sensitive information. We would request that you use the enclosed version in the record on appeal. I intend to email you separately this file, so you have it immediately.

Further, we would request that you destroy any unredacted versions of this file in your possession.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Samuel M. Wheeler
