Re: Terry Capone v. City of Columbia (2)
Appellate Case No. 2021-000453

Dear Mr. Capone:

This Court has received your letter dated June 21, 2021.

To the extent this letter may be seeking some relief from this Court, it is being construed as a motion. Since you have not paid the filing fee required by Rule 240(d) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), no action will be taken on this motion.

As to your question regarding the submission of an amended petition for a writ of certiorari, an amended petition may only be filed if the Court grants you permission to serve and file an amended petition for a writ of certiorari. That permission must be sought by filing a motion that fully complies with the requirements of Rule 240, SCACR, including the required filing fee.

Finally, I note that my last name is "Shearouse" not "Steakhouse." I ask that you please spell my name correctly in any future correspondence in this case.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
