TERMS AND CONDITIONS

LOWE'S DEFINED. It is understood that various independent and separate corporations use this form. Therefore, within this Contract, the term "Lowe's" shall refer individually to one of the following corporations as evidenced on the signature page of this Contract: "Lowe's Home Centers, Inc." (a North Carolina corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Lowe's Companies, Inc., a North Carolina corporation).

GENERAL DESCRIPTION. By this installed sales contract (the "Contract"), Customer agrees to purchase and Lowe's agrees to sell the goods and/or materials (the "Goods") and the services to install same (the "Installation Services") in or on the above-identified premises (the "Premises") for the stated total cash price (the "Price") and according to the specifications and other provisions of the Contract documents, including (a) this Contract form, (b) the Addendum, if and to the extent applicable, (c) and any attached sketches, materials lists, floor plans, and/or specification sheets.

INSTALLATION SERVICES. Customer authorizes Lowe's (a) to arrange for the Installation Services to be performed by an experienced independent contractor (the "Installer") (licensed when legally required), (b) to issue a work order to the Installer to perform the Installation Services, (c) to inspect the Installer's work, and (d) to pay the Installer after completion of the work and after receipt of a certificate, signed and dated by Customer, that the work has been satisfactorily completed (the "Certificate of Completion"). Customer understands that Lowe's will rely upon the Certificate of Completion in paying the Installer for the Installation Services.

GOODS. Lowe's will arrange for delivery of the Goods to the Premises. Any surplus materials upon completion of the Installation Services shall remain the property of Lowe's and shall be returned to Lowe's by the Installer.

PRICE. The Price owed by Customer to Lowe's covers the Goods, Installation Services, and applicable taxes. The Price assumes sound existing substructures, superstructure and points of attachments. The price shall be increased by the cost and reasonable profit to Lowe's of having to provide additional Goods and/or Installation Services as a result of defective substructures, superstructures, or points of attachments.

PAYMENT. Payment of the Price by Customer to Lowe's is due in full upon execution of the Contract.

WAIVER OF LIENS FOR CONTRACTS OF $3,000 OR LESS. If this Contract is for a Price of $3,000 or less, Lowe's, on behalf of itself, its Installer, and any subcontractor(s), hereby fully and unconditionally relinquishes, waives and releases any and all mechanic's liens, materialman's liens and other liens in the Premises which Lowe's might have or acquire, by operation of law or otherwise, as a result of this Contract. In addition, because responsibility for paying its Installer belongs to Lowe's and not to Customer, Lowe's has required the Installer, on behalf of itself and any subcontractor(s), to fully and unconditionally relinquish, waive and release any and all mechanic's liens, materialman's liens and other liens in the Premises which the Installer or subcontractor might have or acquire now or in the future, by operation of law or otherwise, as a result of this Contract.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Contract accurately states the entire agreement between Customer and Lowe's concerning this sale of Goods and Installation Services and replaces and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings relating thereto, both oral and written. Any additions or changes to this Contract must be in writing signed by Customer and Lowe's.

MANUFACTURER WARRANTY FOR GOODS / LOWE'S WARRANTY FOR INSTALLATION SERVICES. Customer is entitled to any warranty provided by a manufacturer of the Goods sold under this Contract. The Installer will provide Customer with any manufacturer consumer warranty information accompanying the Goods, and Customer may also obtain such information by contacting Lowe's. Lowe's does not warrant the Goods. Lowe's does warrant that the Installation Services will be performed by the Installer in a good and workmanlike manner. Lowe's warranty for Installation Services shall extend for a period of one year from the date the Certificate of Completion is signed by Customer or for such greater period as may be required by applicable law governing consumer warranties for workmanship (the Warranty Period). Customer must give Lowe's written notice within the Warranty Period of any warranty claim relating to Installation Services. Customer agrees that its sole and exclusive remedy against Lowe's for a warranty claim is reinstallation in a good and workmanlike manner, including the repair or replacement of any Goods if and to the extent reasonably necessary to correct the defective Installation Services. Customer shall have no other remedy against Lowe's for a warranty claim, including without limitation remedy for loss or damage caused by normal wear and tear, loss or damage which has not been reasonably mitigated, loss or damage caused by acts of God, incidental or consequential damages for lost profits, sales, injuries to persons or property, or any other incidental or consequential damages. Lowe's warranty for Installation Services shall be in lieu of any other warranty expressed or implied, including without limitation any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. In connection with any warranty claim, Customer agrees, at no cost to Lowe's, to prepare the Premises, including the removal and replacement of fixtures incident to the repair area, so that Lowe's, or its designee, can correct the defective Installation Services without undue delay.

LICENSES, PERMITS, SAFETY RULES, BUILDING CODES, ZONING ORDINANCES, AND OTHER LAWS. Lowe's shall be responsible to Customer for obtaining any and all licenses and building permits which are legally required to perform the Contract. If Customer obtains permits on his own, Customer will be precluded from claiming against certain state guaranty funds relating to home improvements. Lowe's shall also be responsible to Customer for the Contract's being performed in compliance with all applicable safety rules and all existing building codes, zoning ordinances and other laws. Lowe's shall not be responsible for any pre-existing violations of safety rules, building codes, zoning ordinances or other laws. If a change occurs to any applicable safety rule, building code, zoning ordinance or other law which requires additional Goods and/or Installation Services to perform the Contract, Customer agrees to pay Lowe's the cost and reasonable profit for such additional Goods and Installation Services and to execute a resulting change order or new replacement Contract as requested by Lowe's.

CUSTOMER'S WARRANTY AGAINST VIOLATIONS OF EASEMENTS, COVENANTS, AND THIRD PARTY RIGHTS. Customer warrants that performance of this Contract by Lowe's and its Installer will not violate any existing real property easements, covenants, or rights of third parties holding an interest in the real property being improved.

UNDISCLOSED CONDITIONS IN PREMISES. If Installer discovers any defect, weakness or dangerous condition including, but in no way limited to, mold, mildew, rot, asbestos or infestation ("Undisclosed Condition") in the Premises' structure, substructure, super-structure or points of attachment, Customer must remedy the Undisclosed Condition at Customer's sole cost and expense and to Lowe's sole satisfaction or refuses to permit inspection of the Premises as set forth below. Lowe's may terminate this Contract without remedy or recourse to Customer. If Customer and Lowe's disagree as to whether an Undisclosed Condition exists, Lowe's will obtain the services of an inspector at Lowe's sole cost and expense whose report shall be final and conclusive as to whether an Undisclosed Condition exists.

ARBITRATION. If Customer has any questions or complaints regarding the Contract, Customer may contact the Lowe's Manager or Installed Sales Specialist whose names and telephone number appear elsewhere on the Contract. All disputes and claims between Customer and Lowe's concerning this Contract which either party believes cannot be resolved informally, including without limitation any warranty claims, shall be resolved by binding arbitration conducted by a single arbitrator under the current auspices, rules and consumer procedures and protocols of the American Arbitration Association (as amended) and in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. The arbitration shall be held in the city or county where the Premises are located or in such other convenient location as the parties may mutually agree. No discovery shall be allowed except as may be agreed to in writing by the parties. Either party may demand arbitration, and the arbitrator's final award shall be issued within ninety (90) days after service of the arbitration demand on the other party.

REMEDY FOR BREACH. If Customer breaches this Contract, Lowe's, or its assigns, shall be entitled to recover the greater of liquidated damages in the amount of 20% of the total Contract price or such actual damages as Lowe's, or its assigns, prove. Also, if Customer fails to pay Lowe's in accordance with this Contract, Lowe's shall be entitled to recover its legal costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, in connection with arbitrating, obtaining judgment on an arbitration award, or otherwise pursuing Customer for collection. Customer agrees that Lowe's reasonable attorney's fees shall constitute 15% of the amount owed under the Contract, arbitration award or judgment.

UNAVOIDABLE DELAY OR FAILURE IN PERFORMANCE EXCUSED. Any delay or failure by Lowe's or its Installer in performing this Contract because of strike, fire, flood, acts of God, inability to obtain Goods, or any other causes beyond the reasonable control of Lowe's or its Installer shall be excused and shall not be breaches of this Contract.

MISCELLANEOUS. This Contract shall be interpreted under and governed by the law of North Carolina. If any provision of this Contract is contrary to any law to which it is subject, such unlawful provision shall be ineffective without invalidating the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Contract accurately states the entire agreement between Customer and Lowe's concerning this sale of Goods and Installation Services and replaces and supercedes all prior agreements and understandings relating thereto, both oral and written. Any additions or changes to this Contract must be in writing signed by Customer and Lowe's.

MANUFACTURER WARRANTY FOR GOODS / LOWE'S WARRANTY FOR INSTALLATION SERVICES. Customer is entitled to any warranty provided by a manufacturer of the Goods sold under this Contract. The Installer will provide Customer with any manufacturer consumer warranty information accompanying the Goods, and Customer may also obtain such information by contacting Lowe's. Lowe's does not warrant the Goods. Lowe's does warrant that the Installation Services will be performed by the Installer in a good and workmanlike manner. Lowe's warranty for Installation Services shall extend for a period of one year from the date the Certificate of Completion is signed by Customer or for such greater period as may be required by applicable law governing consumer warranties for workmanship (the Warranty Period). Customer must give Lowe's written notice within the Warranty Period of any warranty claim relating to Installation Services. Customer agrees that its sole and exclusive remedy against Lowe's for a warranty claim is reinstallation in a good and workmanlike manner, including the repair or replacement of any Goods if and to the extent reasonably necessary to correct the defective Installation Services. Customer shall have no other remedy against Lowe's for a warranty claim, including without limitation remedy for loss or damage caused by normal wear and tear, loss or damage which has not been reasonably mitigated, loss or damage caused by acts of God, incidental or consequential damages for lost profits, sales, injuries to persons or property, or any other incidental or consequential damages. Lowe's warranty for Installation Services shall be in lieu of any other warranty expressed or implied, including without limitation any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. In connection with any warranty claim, Customer agrees, at no cost to Lowe's, to prepare the Premises, including the removal and replacement of fixtures incident to the repair area, so that Lowe's, or its designee, can correct the defective Installation Services without undue delay.

LICENSES, PERMITS, SAFETY RULES, BUILDING CODES, ZONING ORDINANCES, AND OTHER LAWS. Lowe's shall be responsible to Customer for obtaining any and all licenses and building permits which are legally required to perform the Contract. If Customer obtains permits on his own, Customer will be precluded from claiming against certain state guaranty funds relating to home improvements. Lowe's shall also be responsible to Customer for the Contract's being performed in compliance with all applicable safety rules and all existing building codes, zoning ordinances and other laws. Lowe's shall not be responsible for any pre-existing violations of safety rules, building codes, zoning ordinances or other laws. If a change occurs to any applicable safety rule, building code, zoning ordinance or other law which requires additional Goods and/or Installation Services to perform the Contract, Customer agrees to pay Lowe's the cost and reasonable profit for such additional Goods and Installation Services and to execute a resulting change order or new replacement Contract as requested by Lowe's.

CUSTOMER'S WARRANTY AGAINST VIOLATIONS OF EASEMENTS, COVENANTS, AND THIRD PARTY RIGHTS. Customer warrants that performance of this Contract by Lowe's and its Installer will not violate any existing real property easements, covenants, or rights of third parties holding an interest in the real property being improved.

UNDISCLOSED CONDITIONS IN PREMISES. If Installer discovers any defect, weakness or dangerous condition including, but in no way limited to, mold, mildew, rot, asbestos or infestation ("Undisclosed Condition") in the Premises' structure, substructure, super-structure or points of attachment, Customer must remedy the Undisclosed Condition at Customer's sole cost and expense and to Lowe's sole satisfaction or refuses to permit inspection of the Premises as set forth below. Lowe's may terminate this Contract without remedy or recourse to Customer. If Customer and Lowe's disagree as to whether an Undisclosed Condition exists.

ARBITRATION. If Customer has any questions or complaints regarding the Contract, Customer may contact the Lowe's Manager or Installed Sales Specialist whose names and telephone number appear elsewhere on the Contract. All disputes and claims between Customer and Lowe's concerning this Contract which either party believes cannot be resolved informally, including without limitation any warranty claims, shall be resolved by binding arbitration conducted by a single arbitrator under the current auspices, rules and consumer procedures and protocols of the American Arbitration Association (as amended) and in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. The parties to this Agreement specifically agree that no class action arbitration of any type may be ordered by a Court or arbitrator(s) under this Agreement and, in addition, that there shall be no joinder of parties, except for joinder of parties to the transaction covered by this Agreement. The arbitration shall be held in the city or county where the Premises are located or in such other convenient location as the parties may mutually agree. No discovery shall be allowed except as may be agreed to in writing by the parties. Either party may demand arbitration, and the arbitrator's final award shall be issued within ninety (90) days after service of the arbitration demand on the other party.

REMEDY FOR BREACH. If Customer breaches this Contract, Lowe's, or its assigns, shall be entitled to recover the greater of liquidated damages in the amount of 20% of the total Contract price or such actual damages as Lowe's, or its assigns, prove. Also, if Customer fails to pay Lowe's in accordance with this Contract, Lowe's shall be entitled to recover its legal costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, in connection with arbitrating, obtaining judgment on an arbitration award, or otherwise pursuing Customer for collection. Customer agrees that Lowe's reasonable attorney's fees shall constitute 15% of the amount owed under the Contract, arbitration award or judgment.

UNAVOIDABLE DELAY OR FAILURE IN PERFORMANCE EXCUSED. Any delay or failure by Lowe's or its Installer in performing this Contract because of strike, fire, flood, acts of God, inability to obtain Goods, or any other causes beyond the reasonable control of Lowe's or its Installer shall be excused and shall not be breaches of this Contract.

MISCELLANEOUS. This Contract shall be interpreted under and governed by the law of North Carolina. If any provision of this Contract is contrary to any law to which it is subject, such unlawful provision shall be ineffective without invalidating the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect. All parties to this Agreement acknowledge that if this Agreement is executed, or to the extent this Agreement is to be performed, within the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, it is an Agreement exclusively with Lowe's HIW, Inc. and no rights or remedies shall be available from any other Lowe's entity. The terms of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Lowe's Companies, Inc., as well as its wholly owned subsidiaries. It is agreed that Lowe's Companies, Inc. or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries may bring any action for recourse or remedy sought by Lowe's. It is further agreed that the other party to this Agreement shall be limited to seeking recourse or remedy exclusively from the specific Lowe's corporation with which this Agreement is executed, as evidenced on the signature page, and none other.
