Re: The State v. Bruce A. Buckner
Appellate Case No. 2021-000635

Dear Mr. Buckner:

The Court received your document requesting appointment of counsel and an extension of time to cure deficiencies, which we are construing as a motion to appoint counsel. The filing of this type of motion holds all appellate timelines in abeyance until we rule on the motion. Accordingly, we will not take any further action on your request for an extension of time; rather, you may wait until after we decide the motion to finalize your appeal. Our records reflect the following items are still needed to perfect your appeal:

- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by the order(s) and/or judgment(s) challenged on appeal.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- You must provide proof that the notice of appeal was filed with the York County Clerk of Court.

You will be notified once the Court rules on your motion.

Very truly yours,
