Re: Rudolph Cochran v. Omeegas of Charleston
Appellate Case No. 2020-001581

Dear Counsel:

We received the respondent's letter dated July 6, 2021 stating that no counsel has been obtained, and that the respondent does not intend on making future filings. Please be advised our records now reflect that the respondent wishes to not serve and file an initial brief and designation of matter.

Therefore, appellant should proceed to serve and file your initial brief and designation of matter, as provided in Rules 208 and 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), within thirty (30) days from the date of this letter.

The record on appeal will be due to be served within thirty (30) days from the date of service of the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, and the appellant's final brief will be due to be served and filed within twenty (20) days from the date of service of the record on appeal, as provided in Rules 210(b) and 211(a), SCACR.

Very truly yours,
