Re: The State v. Dominick A. Brown
Appellate Case No. 2021-000720

Dear Counsel:

According to a public records search, you are the representing counsel for the appellant. Attached is a copy of the notice of appeal and order filed by your client, received July 02, 2021.

Upon reviewing your client's notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- The notice of appeal is not in the proper format.
- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

- Proof has not been provided showing a copy of the notice of appeal has been filed with the clerk of court of Charleston County. See Rule 203(d)(1)(B), SCACR.

Very truly yours,
