

JASON SCOTT LUCK

ATTORNEY AT LAW

P.O. BOX 47 (107 S. PARSONAGE ST.)
BENNETTSVILLE, SC 29512
843.479.6863

11 July 2021

RECEIVED

Jul 12 2021

S.C. SUPREME COURT

Via Email Only

Hon. Daniel E. Shearouse
Clerk, South Carolina Supreme Court
P.O. Box 11330
Columbia, SC 29211
supctfilings@sccourts.org

Re: State v. Taylor, 2020-001184

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Amicus curiae South Carolina Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (SCACDL) has selected me to argue on its behalf in this matter's contemplated oral arguments. A letter from SCACDL to this effect is forthcoming.

I also write to inform the Court of a potential conflict for September 22, 23, and 24, 2021. The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals has informed me that oral arguments in Folkes v. Nelsen, 21-6217, could take place September 21-24, 2021. Though the date has not been formally set, I am informed that the Fourth Circuit will schedule arguments in that appeal for September 24, 2021. In order to provide me enough time to travel to Richmond, I would beg the Court to not schedule oral arguments in the above-captioned case on September 22 and 23, 2021. I would, however, be fully capable of arguing the above-captioned case on September 21, 2021.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

With Highest Regards,

/s/ Jason Scott Luck

/JSL

Cc: William Blich, Esq. (via email only)
James A. Brown, Jr., Esq. (via email only)