Re: State v. Shondre Lamond Williams,
Case No.: M-758190 - 2012GS424097; M-758191 - 2012GS424098

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

My client is indigent and incarcerated. I forwarded to him the affidavit necessary for him to complete in order to apply for the services of the Office of Appellate Defense. He was moved to McCormick and apparently has not received that affidavit. I have forwarded another affidavit to him at McCormick Correctional. I have instructed him to fill out and send the affidavit to OAD immediately. As I believe Mr. Williams will qualify for services I am requesting that the time for requesting the transcript be held in abeyance to allow OAD to receive the affidavit and engage in the case.

I will continue to communicate with the Office of Appellate Defense to assist them in the evaluation of Mr. Williams' eligibility for services. Unless I am advised that Mr. Williams does not qualify for representation by OAD, or instructed by the Court to do otherwise, I will take no further action on the appeal.

If you need anything else from me regarding the appeal please let me know.

Sincerely,

J. Falkner Wilkes
