SC Court of Appeals

RE: State of South Carolina v. Brandon Jerome Clark
Appellate Case No.: 2019-001477

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received notice via email on July 20, 2021, that the Court of Appeals requires additional bound copies of the record on appeal and final briefs, due on July 30, 2021. I am requesting an additional two weeks to produce the same. The reasons for this request are as follows: on July 20, 2021, while at my home, my mother suffered a fall, fracturing her skull and requiring emergency and short-term medical care; she was discharged from the hospital on July 22, 2021, and returned to my home to convalesce, all of which has required a considerable and unanticipated amount of my attention. Additionally, on July 19, 2021, due to my landlord's renovations at my office building, my entire law office had to be moved into storage, where the furnishings and files will remain until at least August 2, 2021, barring no construction delays. I do not currently have access to the copier or binding supplies necessary to complete this request and will not until the renovation is complete.

I have not previously requested an extension of the time to produce additional bound copies. I have consulted with opposing counsel, Assistant Attorney General William Schumacher, who advises he consents in this request.

With best wishes I remain,
