Re: ANTHONY HOWARDS V. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
Appellate case No. 2021-000645

Dear Clerk,

I received an explanation pursuant to Rule 243(c), SCACR filed with your office by my Counsel Ms. Susannah Ross, dated July 22, 2021. Ms. Ross advised me that I have twenty (20) days from the date of the letter to file with The SUPREME COURT a pro se explanation as to why I should not be prohibited from filing further PCR applications, habeas corpus actions, or any other action challenging my sentence or conviction without obtaining the permission of the Court.

CLERK, at this time pro se applicant request an extension to respond in the above action. pro se applicant has limited time in the law library here at the institution due to Covid 19 restriction, and humbly request an extension to respond in the above action. Based on the hard ship here at the institution with Covid 19 restrictions, pro se applicant request any amount of time Court deems proper.
