

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Marcus Bowman, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2021-000493

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the dismissal of his third application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner was asked to provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, as to why the PCR court's dismissal of his application was improper. Additionally, in light of the number of PCR applications Petitioner has filed, he was asked to provide any reasons why this Court should not impose restrictions on his filing of collateral actions challenging his 1996 conviction and sentence for murder.

Petitioner has failed to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting the denial of his third PCR application was improper, nor has he asserted any reason this Court should not impose restrictions on his future filings. Accordingly, we dismiss the notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 243(c), SCACR. In addition, we hereby prohibit Petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to his previously filed collateral actions or his underlying 1996 conviction and sentence, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
