ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REGARDING DECISION BY THE COURT AS REFERENCED ON PAGE 1.

This action came to trial or hearing before the court. The issues have been tried or heard and a decision rendered. A jury trial was held in this matter. After the Plaintiff's case, Plaintiff moved for a Motion in Limine to restrict the Defendant from introducing any evidence of damages, and said Motion was granted on the various grounds set forth on the record. At the conclusion of the Defendant's case, the Plaintiff moved for a directed verdict on the Defendant's counterclaims on numerous grounds. Since the Court had already ruled that the Defendant was foreclosed from presenting any evidence of damages, the Defendant was not able to establish all of the elements of its causes of action asserted in its counterclaims and the Court granted the Plaintiff's Motion for a Directed Verdict, dismissing all of Defendant's Counterclaims. During the Motions, the Defendant's consented to the dismissal of Joyce Featherstone as a Third Party Defendant. The Plaintiff then moved for a Directed Verdict on the Breach of Contract action regarding the distribution of the Escrow Account being held by United Community Bank ("UCB") under the Indemnity Escrow Agreement ("Escrow Agreement"). Since the Defendant's counterclaims had been dismissed and no claim for offset had been asserted, the Plaintiff was entitled to the escrow funds held pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement and Escrow Agreement and the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion for Directed Verdict and ordered that the escrow funds being held by UCB be released to the Plaintiff. Defendant also moved for a directed verdict as to the Plaintiff's cause of action for Breach of Contract Accompanied by Fraudulent Act. The Court found that there was no credible evidence of fraud, even in light most favorable to the Plaintiff, and this Motion was granted and the Plaintiff's 2nd Cause of Action for Breach of Contract Accompanied by Fraudulent Act was dismissed. The Plaintiff asserted a claim for pre-judgment interest and the Court found that due to Defendant's viable claim under the Stock Purchase Agreement and the lack of such a provision in the Escrow Agreement, there was no basis for pre-judgment interest. In light of these rulings, no claims remained to be presented to the jury. The Court further instructed Plaintiff's counsel to submit a proposed Order directing UCB to release the escrow funds of $440,000 including any accrued interest to the Plaintiff. Further, parties were granted 10 days for any post trial Motions with the deadline for such Motions being August 9, 2021. It is so Ordered.
