Appeal from Spartanburg County
Hon. J. Derham Cole, Circuit Court Judge
2008-CP-42-0475

Case No. 2012-213499

John Doe, ..... Appellant

v.

City of Duncan ..... Respondent

Motion To Extend Time

Plaintiff John Doe hereby moves the Court to extend the time to file the attached Initial brief of Appellant. The Court has not ruled on the motion to extend time to order the transcript, and to protect the record in the case this motion is submitted along with the Initial Brief of Appellant, in the event that the Court determines that a motion is necessary for the Initial Brief. The Initial Brief is submitted within 30 days of receiving the transcript.

This motion is to permit the Initial Brief of Appellant to be filed.

Respectfully submitted,

Gregg Meyers

Re: Appeal 2012-213499, Doe v. City of Duncan, Case No. 08-CP-42-0475
(Spartanburg County, Hon. J. Derham Cole)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On March 4 I submitted a Motion to Extend time for requesting a transcript. I am not aware that any ruling has been made on the motion. Meanwhile, I received the transcript in early March, so have prepared the Initial Brief.

Enclosed for filing please find an original and six copies of a Motion to Extend Time for the Initial Brief of Appellant. I do not know if this motion is necessary, but without a ruling on my March 4 motion to request the transcript, I wanted to submit the Initial brief of Appellant within 30 days of receiving the transcript.

Also enclosed is the Initial Brief of Appellant, the Designation of Matter to Be Included in the Record, proof of service for the Designation, proof of service for the Initial Brief, proof of service for this contingent motion, and a $25 filing fee for the motion, should the motion be regarded as necessary.

Please file this motion with the Court if it is regarded by the Court as necessary. If not, please file the Initial Brief of Appellant with the Court.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely

Gregg Meyers
