Dear Dr. Grant and Mr. Burgess,

I have made Judge Dukes aware of your correspondence. The purpose of the conference call was to schedule any Motion or request that Dr. Grant might want to have to determine a bond to stay the sale.

If no bond is posted, the sale will occur on October 4, 2021.

The $900,000.00 that Dr. Grant referenced was a very rough estimate based a possible 1.5 multiple on the total judgment amount and is not the actual bond amount.

Judge Dukes wanted me to let you know that if Dr. Grant timely requests an expedited hearing to post a bond and stay the sale, we will make every effort to accommodate the request.

Based on the emails, we will cancel today's scheduled telephone conference.

Thanks,

Jacqueline Grey,

Good Morning Everyone,

Ms. Grant, thanks so much for your correspondence. In light of your email, I am respectfully requesting that the property be set for sale on the next available foreclosure sales date. Pursuant to SC Appellate Court Rule 241(b)(4), the filing of an appeal does not impose a stay of the order directing the subject property be sold at foreclosure sale.

Thanks so much,

Chad

To Whom It May Concern/Clerk for Judge Marvin H. Dukes III,

Per our conversation, today in regard to Circuit Court Judge Marvin H Dukes III wanting a telephone conference with me tomorrow, I have been advised not to attend any impromptu telephone conferences by any court. I have filed my appeal with The Supreme Court of South Carolina, Case No. 2021-000978, as you know on September 3, 2021. I am and will not be available for any telephone conference being held September 9, 2021, at 1:30pm.

I heard a question being asked if I had a $900,000 bond. I was informed by Judge Dukes that said property, R510007000017B0000, Case No. 2016-CP-07-01466, was pulled to give me time or do bond research.

Sincerely,

Terry Lennette Grant
