Mr. Watkins:

Good morning, Tony Megna, attorney for Plaintiff Blythewood Oil Co., Inc., and I have the trial testimony from the original trial from case No. 2020CP2000356 Re: Blythewood Oil Co., Inc. v. Singh, et al as well as the trial testimony from the subsequent bench trial that took place on September 23, 2019; however, we do not have the title pages for the testimony from either trial. Would you mind sending us the title pages for the testimony from both trials? Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

J. Keane Mossman

Re: Blythewood Oil Co. v. Shinda Singh
Appellate Case No. 2021-000944

Dear Counsel:

We received your motion for extension of time to serve and file the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. According to Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), "...the transcript must be ordered within ten (10) days after the date of service of the notice of appeal." Within ten (10) days from the date of this letter, you must provide this Court with an update regarding the transcript order. Failure to provide an update regarding the transcript order within ten (10) days from the date of this letter may result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
