RE: Lagroon v. Stone
Appellate Case No. 2012-206746

Dear Madam Clerk,

On or about March 14, 2013, I received correspondence indicating that the Court of Appeals had reinstated the right of the Appellant to pursue the appeal, and order the transcripts in this matter. This is despite the fact that this Honorable Court dismissed this appeal because the Appellant failed to order the transcripts in a timely manner, and otherwise failed to pursue the appeal for a significant period of time. I did not receive any notice whatsoever from the Appellant that he had filed any motion to reinstate the appeal, and have not received proof of service of his motion upon me. Therefore, I am respectfully asking for guidance from the Court. If a motion to reinstate exists, with proof of service, could I be provided a copy of such filings? Additionally, would I receive time to respond to the Appellant's motion? Any information that the Court could give me would be most appreciated.

If the Court requires further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
With kind regards, I remain

Very Truly Yours,

Scarlet B. Moore, Esq.
