Christina

If Willaim is correct, I somehow left you out of the loop on this email. I am sorry. I am still looking for the invoice for the pre-trial transcript I only recently got an invoice for and sent a check to prepay for the transcript. I apologize. I hope to find it tomorrow. I will call tomorrow. I am concerned about getting the due date straight on the Initial Brief. Thank you.

Tara,

Sorry I missed your call. I have been on phone conferences or out of the office all day. I just received your email. It appears you intended to send it to Christina Sineath with the Court of Appeals at csineath@sccourts.org but I don't think you copied her on it. You may want to resend it to make certain someone at the Court of Appeals receives it.

Thank you very much for this notice. I have previously called and advised another appeals specialist, you were out that day, that the final Order on the State's Motion to Dismiss was not filed until June 30, 2021 and that I needed order a transcript of the second of two hearings held by Judge Dennis on these motions. The Court Reporter from that hearing, Denise Lauder has recently retired. I called Court Administration and got instructions for requesting this transcript through them. The transcript of that second hearing on the post-trial motions, held on February 17, 2021 is being submitted today. I attach a copy of that transcript request for filing with this Honorable Court. I will copy the Office of the Solicitor, and opposing counsel on this appeal, William Blitch, on the transcript request. Thank you very much. Please advise me if there is anything further I need to do to get this appeal back on track. Thank you very much for your assistance.

Thank you very much for your assistance.
