Ms. Falin—Good afternoon. I represent the Appellant J & W , and am on vacation and am monitoring e-mails, but trying to get away from the office. Yours, however, was very important.

My request for an extension was premised on me being out of town until we get back on October 3, 2021, and I had requested 10 days from the September 30, 2021 deadline originally set, until October 10. You have granted me an extension until October 4, 2021, which is the Monday after i get back in state on Sunday. I'm just writing to ask if that was your intent, or if it was a mistake I hope? If you all insist upon me getting the 6 copies in overnight by midnight Monday I can do that probably by coming home earlier, but I'm hoping it was a mistake.

May I please have the 10 day extension requested through the 10th of October, or should I plan to have them in overnight by October 4, 2021 as your Order today indicates?

Thank you for your and the Court's consideration. Respondents' counsel copied on this email of course.
