Christina,

Last night I found the email where Penny Johnson actually sent me that last pre-trial hearing transcript record as an attachment to the transmittal letter with the invoice on August 12, 2021. I paid her already, but upon seeing that the text was about her invoice, I obviously did not read the balance of her email closely. I apologize to everyone. As I told her in my email last week, I am simply too accustomed to Court Reporters requiring payments in advance. I tried to open her attachment last night and was unsuccessful. I emailed her and asked for her assistance. Thus far I have not heard back from her. She is probably in Court. I am attaching a copy of that email stream. I will notify you just as soon as I get this record open. Please let me know if there is anything further I need to do to keep this direct appeal on track. Thank you for your continued assistance in this matter.
