MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME IN WHICH TO SERVE AND FILE APPELLANT'S INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION

Pursuant to Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the undersigned attorney, counsel for appellant, Glenn Edwin Vanover, files this motion for an extension of the deadline for serving and filing the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal, and in support of this motion says as follows:

1. Appellant's initial brief and designation were originally due to be served and filed February 25, 2013. Counsel for appellant has previously sought and obtained two extensions of this deadline. The initial brief and designation are now due to be served and filed April 24, 2013.

2. Counsel for appellant has five appellate briefs due within the five-business-day period from April 24 to April 30, in addition to other work commitments related to cases in the lower courts. Counsel will be unable to complete the initial brief of appellant by the due date of April 24. This extension request is not for purposes of delay but because of counsel's heavy workload at this time.

3. Good cause exists for this extension request.

4. Opposing counsel, Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General Salley W. Elliott, has signed below to indicate her consent to a 30-day extension of the deadline for filing appellant's initial brief and designation.

WHEREFORE, counsel hereby respectfully moves for a 30-day extension of time in which to serve and file the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal, until May 24, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,
