SC Court of Appeals

Re: Bluffton Park Community Association Inc. v.
Joseph Chakyng Sun
Matter: 2021-000434

Dear Ms. Burns:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter my firm received from you on September 2nd, 2021 to my e-mail address and directed to Mr. Sun. I just had reason to look at it again and was concerned that I may not have interpreted it the way it was intended. Upon closer review of the letter and the online appellate case index, I now believe you may have been notifying Mr. Sun that my client's initial brief was due. Please note that I never received and cannot find on the said index any letters directed to me about any briefs, and I have never been notified of the filing of an initial brief by Mr. Sun¹. An even closer review of that index also revealed that there is a good bit that has transpired in this case of which I have not been notified or aware. Accordingly, please clarify if the enclosed letter was intended to notify Mr. Sun that he needed to fix his initial brief (note various defects), or if it was directed to me telling me that I had to respond to Mr. Sun's initial brief.

As an aside, and in case there is anything the court wants to take up on its own motion, I believe my client would like to file a motion to dismiss the appeal in lieu of an initial brief on various procedural and substantive grounds if the court will allow it. Please advise there as well.

Sincerely,

¹ I did receive an e-mail from Mr. Sun on June 25th, 2021 with unsigned, unfiled, and improperly dated Microsoft Word documents identified as an initial brief, cover letter, matter designation, and proof of service purporting to have sent it to me on June 22nd, 2021 attached.
