Re: Willie Young, #285487 v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2021-001044

Dear Mr. Young:

Upon reviewing your designation of matter, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- The accompanying proof of service is not in compliance with the SCACR. Your proof of service should be substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, the date that you served the document is missing.
- The document is not accompanied by the certificate of counsel required by Rule 209(c), SCACR.
- The appellant's initial brief did not accompany the designation of matter.

The documents that were included in your designation of matter are being returned to you. These documents are to be only listed in your designation of matter but included in the record on appeal, along with the documents that opposing counsel designates in their designation of matter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
