Subject: N. Bobby Knight v. SCDLLR // 2017-001311

Dear Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

I am writing to obtain a transcript of the oral arguments in this case since Mr. Swope has vanished. Your Appeal hearing was held on September 23, 2020. Appearing for me was William K. Swope, Esq. Appearing for the SCDLLR Contractor License Board was Kyle Tennis, Esq.

Since the oral arguments were held, Mr. Swope has not responded to any contact efforts from me; text, email or letters. I asked the SC Bar at the Supreme Court to contact him on my behalf as to determine my rights going forward. This, too, has not produced any contact to me from Mr. Swope. The Bar wrote to tell me they sent him the request. Otherwise, there has been not been a reply or contact.

I had been unofficially informed by a friend of his, that Mr. Swope has suffered a long illness and disability and this is the reason for his inability to timely confer with me about my case. I hope he is well with him, however, I need to determine what options are open to me.

I am advised to first order a oral arguments transcript. Can you send me the court reporters contact?
