Ms. Sineath:

I am embarrassed. After begging for oral argument, I have a major conflict on October 20, 2021. I am in a five-day family court custody trial before Judge Timothy E. Madden. This case has been pending for two years and scheduled since April 20, 2021. Opposing counsel has subpoenaed more than ten witnesses. Completing this trial in five days was already difficult, and missing any court time would make it impossible. The custody ruling will affect five children. There is a near-zero chance of settlement.

I respectfully request that this oral argument be scheduled for any time other than the week of October 18, 2021.

I am copying Judge Madden on this email to give in an opportunity to confirm my request or join in my request.
