Re: Zenia Wilson v. Jo Lynn Dorrell
Appellate Case No. 2021-000791

Dear Ms. Wilson:

The Court received your email dated September 29, 2021. We have received the filing fee for your notice of appeal. However, our records reflect your case is in danger of dismissal for failure to cure deficiencies.

Upon reviewing your appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The appellant's initial brief is not correctly formatted. Specifically, the appellant's initial brief should be formatted as shown in Form 13 found under "Forms" located under "Appendices to Part II" under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
