I was informed that I can reach out to the SC courts regarding my recently dismissed administrative law court appeal. I have sent in the appropriate documentation requested of me, but no one will review them except for their lawyer. It appears this lawyer continues to request information from me which seems unnecessary to prolong and delay this process. I am sending all the documentation that I obtained. This documentation shows adequate evidence that I deserve my unemployment benefits. I am requesting that you review the attached documents and review my case. I truly believe that if you take the time to read through my documentation, you will see that I have a good case and the proper evidence to support my plea. I feel there has been wrongdoing here and I want justice to be served and light to be shed on the facts.

Thank you for your attention to this matter,
Susan Lee
