Re: HERMAN BELTON v. STATE
Appellate Case No: 2020-001619

DEAR CLERK;

On 9-30-21, I received a letter from the court dated Sept. 17, 2021. In the letter it stated that I had not notified the court that I have failed to receive the transcript, nor have you all (the court) yet received my initial brief.

By now the court should have received a copy of my thirty (30) page transcript of the hearing that was held via webex video on Oct. 21, 2020 with the honorable Eugene C. Griffith presiding, because I put a copy of the transcript in the U.S. Mail on Sept. 22, 2021.

Since receiving your letter dated Sept. 17, 2021, I am somewhat a little confused. Therefore, my question to you is, at this point, what other correspondence is needed from me at this time? Or, did I just accidentally mislabel the Reply Brief?

Sincerely
Herman Belton #256396
