

Dear Mrs. Steiner,

I'm writing you in regards to my appeal letter I recieved on the 12th of October it is now the 17th. In your correspondence you advised me that you didn't find any grounds to appeal it, I'm writing back to inform you that I would like you to file my appeal under insufficient counseling, on the base that I was unaware of all the details and exactly what my plea entailed. If there is anything else you can think of and/or go with this please do so
