Re: The State v. Marvin K. McBride
Appellate case No. 2021-000813

Motion under Rule 3,
Motion under Rule 5 & 6
for discovery. For disclosure of evidence.

Dear Mrs. Allen:

The court has received said motion has assumed said case conflict of interest, entrapment. upon said trial, thus deprived me of liberty and of justice. said video prove said miranda right violated, no criminal law violate by me, while said officer unlawfully detained me during questioning when I was free to go. said trial judge admitted during said trial, that on July 26, 2021, said video present no proof of said allege offense occur and said officer admitted I was free to go. Thereafter, said trial judge find me mentally competent to stand trial. The court reporter and I will attest to the same.

This appellate case schedule on what date and time? Did all said party of said case recognize the statute of limitation and/or said speedy trial motion violated? said codex) and constitutional rights violated by the State. why is a juvenile record in said trial case discovery material? should've been expunge 2008. My DOB [REDACTED] w/ regard forward me a copy of these motions) and of said appellate case motion.

Sincerely,

Marvin K. McBride Sr
