APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY
Probate Court
Amy W. McCulloch, Probate Judge

Appeal No.: 2021-001119

IN THE MATTER OF:
ESTATE OF FRANKLIN ALSTON
(Decedent) Stefan Joseph Romero, Sr.,
PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE,Respondent,

v.

Yona Renee Davis, Pamela D.
Teasley and Franklin K. Alston, Appellants.

MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL

Respondent Stefan Joseph Romero, Sr., in his capacity as Personal Representative of the Estate of Franklin Alston (Decedent), hereby moves to dismiss the appeal in the above-reverenced matter pursuant to Rules 240 and 260(a), SCACR. This appeal is improper for two reasons and should be dismissed with prejudice.

First, pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-308(a), appeals from the Probate Court are to the Circuit Court, with one exception. That is, pursuant to subsection (l), "If the parties not in default consent either in writing or on the record at a hearing in the probate court, a party to a final order, sentence, or decree of a probate court who considers himself injured by it may appeal directly to the Supreme Court, and the procedure for the appeal must be governed by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules." S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-308(l). Here, the parties who are not in default, in particular Respondent, did not agree, either in writing or on the record, and does not agree to a direct appeal to the Supreme Court or to this Court. As a result, this appeal should be dismissed with prejudice.

Second, this appeal was filed improperly by an attorney who admittedly is not admitted to practice law in the State of South Carolina, in violation of Rule 404, SCACR. While Appellants' notice of appeal indicates that their counsel is "Applying for Pro Hac Vice in this Matter," he has not produced evidence of that application or that he has located local counsel willing to associate with him on this matter. Furthermore, even assuming he has filed a proper application to appear pro hac vice with this Court, he previously filed a late Demand for Hearing with the Probate Court prior to applying for or being granted permission to practice law in the South Carolina. (See Exh. 1, cover letter requesting that the Probate Court "direct [Mr. Morrison] into how [he] may apply for pro hac vice status in this matter"). As a result, Appellants' counsel is in violation of this Court's rules by engaging in the practice of law in South Carolina without permission of this or any other Court.

This Court noted both of these deficiencies in an October 7, 2021 letter to Appellants' counsel, giving him ten (10) days to respond. As of this date, it does not appear that Appellants have provided any response. Consequently, this appeal should be dismissed with prejudice.

This motion conforms with Rule 240 and Rule 267, SCACR.

DEMAND FOR HEARING (ESTATES ONLY)
Pursuant to Notice of Right to Demand Hearing

CASE NUMBER: 2010-ES40-00048

AMY W. MCCULLOCH
PROBATE JUDGE
RICHLAND COUNTY, S.C.

Pursuant to SCPC 62-3-1001, Yona Renee Davis, Pamela D. Teasley and Franklin K. Alston, "the requesting heirs," demand a hearing in the above-referenced estate.

The estate issues they request that the Court inquire into and address are:

1. The reimbursement for Maria and Steven Romero from the decedent's estate;
2. Maria Romero took $500,000 out of a bank in New York, and this money should be accounted for;
3. there have been two different proposals slash recapitulations and not all banks used by the decedent were listed on both;
4. for the property belonging to the decedent in New York, the requesting heirs want to know where the proceeds went and how those proceeds were handled;
5. there are over 200 collectible coins of great age that were taken and the name of pamelia Teasley was forged on the receipt;
6. The day after the decedent died, money was drawn out of his account at Heritage Bank, and a safe deposit box was cleaned out at the same institution without proper authority;
7. There should be an accounting for all of the transactions undertaken by Maria Romero after she had been appointed conservator for the decedent prior to his death. There has been no such accounting;
8. the requesting heirs wish for the court to require all canceled checks that were issued to Steven Romero from Heritage Bank, Palmetto bank, and Wells Fargo to be explained and all amounts accounted for. In addition, there should be an accounting for all monies paid out of the estate by producing canceled checks or other receipts;
9. there should be a proper explanation in an accounting for the proceeds from any sale property in Chesterfield County New York; and
10. The court should inquire into and examine any additional questions that may be raised by the examination of the above issues.

WHEREFORE, the requesting heirs respectfully urge the Court to convene a hearing on this matter, and if possible, allow a discovery period to inquire into the recapitulation so as to frame and narrow issues for the hearing.
