Dear Judge Howe,

Thank you for contacting me. I am requesting the sale of my property set for Monday morning November 1, 2021 be postponed. The reason I am requesting the sale be postponed is as a defendant in this case I am allowed by South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure to file an Appeal of the Order issued in your honorable Court. I am granted 30 days to do so after the Order has been mailed. As the order was only uploaded last night at 5:55PM and the sale set for Monday this does not allow the Appeals Court sufficient time for the Appeal to be review. Please Notify me as to when we can schedule a hearing for the postponement.

Thank you,
Claudia Fabiano

Dear Ms. Fabiano:

Please contact this Court, or its staff, directly. Your husband is not a party to the case. When I spoke with Bob McCurdy today, I made it clear that your husband was not involved in this case, and under our rules, no one in my office should be speaking with him. You are a self-represented litigant. He is not a South Carolina attorney. He cannot represent you. That was made clear at the hearing on September 20, 2021. From this point on, no one will speak with him.

Furthermore, I have been provided a copy of an Order dated October 26, 2021, from the Court of Appeals dismissing your appeal. Before I can hear a motion for an appeal bond, I must be provided an Order from the Court of Appeals showing that your appeal has been reinstated. Please provide that before proceeding with any motion for an appeal bond.

Very truly yours,

Cynthia Graham Howe
