Re: William Patrick Deaton v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-000812
Lower Court Case No. 2010-CP-32-05311

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received a notice of appeal from your client from the order of dismissal dated January 4, 2013. This notice of appeal is dated April 12, 2013, and the proof of service indicates that it was served that same day.

This matter has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter. I remind you that under Rule 71.1(g) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure that you remain his counsel of record before this Court.

To determine the timeliness of this pro se notice of appeal, you will need to advise this Court of the date on which you received written notice of the entry of the order of dismissal dated January 4, 2013. It appears that this order was entered by the clerk of the circuit court on January 14, 2013. This information should be provided to this Court within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).

The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Very truly yours,
