Case Nos.: 2021-CP-08-00513; Appellate Tracking No.: 2021-000768

Dear Ms. Allen,

Before I saw your October 22nd letter, I had already mailed a prompt to the Court Reporter on October 26th. (And, yes, I sent my letter on the 26th before I saw your letter of the 22nd, which demonstrates further, as if any further demonstration were necessary, my level of disorganization.) When I made the original request on July 14th, I sent it by both electronic and regular mail, but the e-mailed version as well as subsequent e-mail correspondence came back as undeliverable. Which is, again, probably my fault and not the court reporter. I continue to struggle with technology as a quick call to Court Administration's electronic filing help desk will confirm.

I take full responsibility for the delay, and I recognize that court reporters are working under difficult conditions since we have all had to adjust to amended procedures. By copy of this letter to Court Administration, I am letting them know that I did request a transcript on July 14th and have attempted to follow up. I have no doubt that whatever the cause of delay is rests with me and not the court reporter. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Dear Denise,

I think you were the court reporter for a motion hearing before Judge Price on Thursday June 3, 2021, at 10:30 a.m. Would you be so kind as to transcribe that hearing for me? If you require pre-payment, let me know, and I will get that to you. (By the way, my email to you at dlauder@sccourts.org bounces back. Is that not the correct address?) I thank you in advance for your attention to this request. With kind regards, I am

Dear Denise,

I wrote you back in July requesting the transcript of record in this case, and I was wondering if you have had a chance to start working on it. I am not trying to pressure you on time, but I am sure that the Court of Appeals will sooner or later make an inquiry, and I was just wondering when you think you might get around to this one. I have included a self-addressed envelope for your convenience in replying. With kind regards, I am
