Re: Selph v. Boatright, Daniels, et al., Appeal Docket No. 2021-00849

To Whom It May Concern:

My firm represents the appellant, Cassandra Selph.

The transcript was timely order, paid for and received by me on September 12, 2021.

I have merely received one extension, which ends on November 12, 2021, and paid the filing fee for doing so.

I am requesting an additional 30 extension to file, which ends on December 13, 2021, and have remitted the fee for doing so. No opposition was filed.

Today, I received an opposition letter from Mr. Askins and feel I have need to respond. (copy attached)

It should be noted that this is a recent appeal of recent vintage and I have only asked for merely one (1) extension to file my briefs and records.

I do see nothing in the rules that require me to set forth a reason for the extension when applying to the Clerk for a second extension, but if you deem it necessary, I will be more than delighted to set forth my reasons for doing so in a subsequent letter to you.

I should have no difficulty filing my briefs and record by December 13, 2021, the date that I requested in my letter of November 10, 2021. But I do state that if such a need arises, I will file a formal motion.

Very truly yours,
